

Author

Charles Lutwidge Dogson (1832-1898) better known by his name Lewis Carroll, published Alice's Adventures Through the Looking-Glass, and What Alice Found There, in 1871. Considered a master of the genre of literacy nonsense, he is reowned for his ingenious wordplay and sense of logic, and his highly original vision.

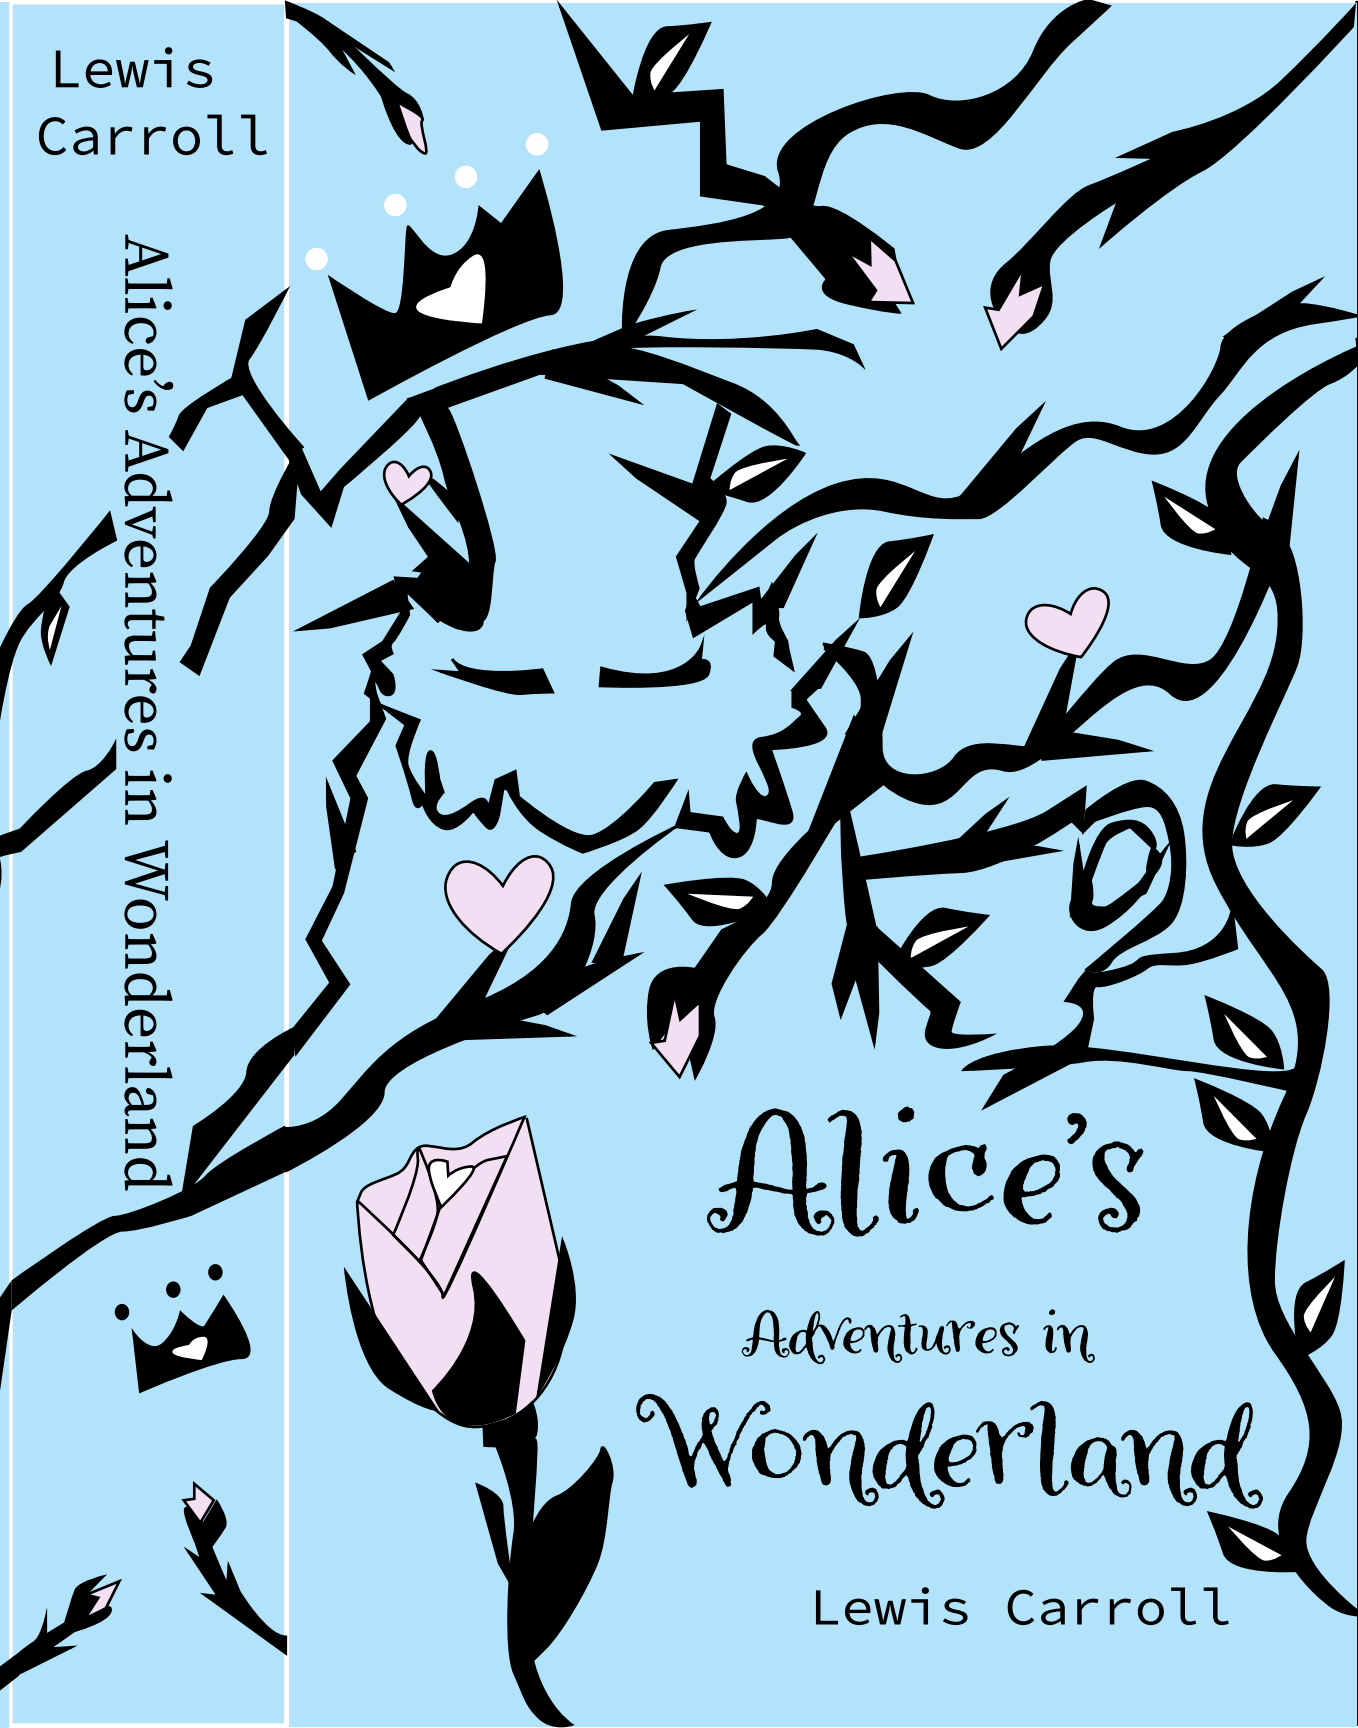

A bright idea came into Alice's head. 'Is that the reason so many tea-things are put out here? She asked.

'Yes, that's it', said the Hatter with a sign:'it's always tea-time, and we've no time to wash the things between whiles.'

We're all mad here.

I'm mad
you're mad.
